

Examples:

A. Bag:

Parts:

bag_body:

handle:

Write Your Sentence here: This is a suitcase with a body and two small handles and one suitcase handle.

B. bag:

Parts:

Bag_body:

Handle:

Write Your Sentence Here: This is a shopping bag with one rectangular body and two soft handles.

Instructions:

1. Use only one sentence to describe the object. This means you cannot write two grammatically correct sentences and combine them into one using “,” and “;”. e.g.,

Correct Example:

This is a shopping bag with one rectangular body and two soft handles.

Wrong Examples:

This is a shopping bag. It has one rectangular body and two soft handles.

This is a shopping bag, it has one rectangular body and two soft handles.

2. When writing the sentence, you are given images of an object and its parts and need to
  - a. Describe the object type. E.g.,

- b. Describe all parts of the object:

- i. Bag body: handle shoulder_strap
- c. Describe each part's attributes:
  - i. Count: e.g., how many handles? How many shoulder straps?
  - ii. Shape: round, square, triangle, curved, tilted, irregular shape, etc.
  - iii. Size: thick, thin, large, small
  - iv. Length: long, short
- d. Do not describe the color

